

To whom it may concern,

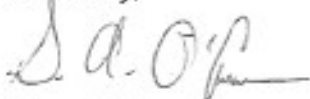

It is with great pleasure that I write a letter of recommendation for Tommy Biggs. Tommy exemplifies all the qualities and intangibles that any future college coach may look for in a player. Not only does he have the highest of work ethic and talent but it is all he qualities combined that separate him from the masses.

I have had the distinct advantage of working with top level athletes for over 15 years at several of the best youth soccer programs and colleges in the country. During this time I could always easily pick out the players who display the intangibles that make for the most successful: the passion to "be the best", set goals, commitment, and pursuit of excellence. These are the qualities that I see in Tommy and when you meet him you will immediately understand why he will make a tremendous asset to any college or team.

It is without hesitation that I recommend Mr. Biggs to any college of his choosing. He will set the example for all future students to emulate.

Please feel free to contact me anytime if I can answer any questions regarding the qualities of Tommy Biggs as he applies to college.

Sincerely,

Sean O'Connor
